You play as an orb that has to collect particles to use as both offense and defense. The standard swarm mode is awesome, but even better is the PVP and the sandbox. Fight other people locally or online, fight a bot 1v1, work your way through infinite waves, or just play with the beautiful particle effects and physics.. Best puzzle game since Portal 2. A nice variation of elements and the problem solving is engaging. Quirky and funny. Can become addictive and a little frustrating when stuck on a level but damn does it feel good to solve them!

Would highly recommend. Great value for money.. A dis for improper xbox360 controller support. Call me if they'll fix it.. I'm sorry but, NO...

If you're 12 this is probably a fun game, but otherwise life is too short to waste time on it. I'll yield that multiplayer might be enjoyable (it seems like it would with the tournaments and online series) but I lost interest before getting around to trying any of it.

There are better implementations of the Wacky Wheels / Mario Kart game type available - MiniBikers is just missing "something".

And the nauseating F-Zero "steering the world" style pov does not help matters on the short, tight-cornered tracks. Some people actually like it, but after 5 minutes I wanted to yell at my shoes.. small, lightweight bullet hell game - you are defencing the base, and lots of enemies approaching you - as you are upgrading your gun, bullets speed, start shoot with multiple bullets, you kill more and more, however, you still can't be perfect, i'm afraid :)
